TRIAL OF OTHER ROUGH RIDERS

Sussex Sheriff Summons Another Venire From the City of Petersburg.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN

Concur in Important Joint Action With the City Council

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., March 13.—Sheriff
Prince, of Sussex county, Va., is again in Petersburg summoning jurors to try three more of the negro "rough riders"
next Wednesday in the Sussex Circuit

A venire of twenty-one has been sum-moned, of whom nearly all are young mone, or whom hearly an are years men.

The seven "rough riders," whose trial bagins Wednesday, are under indict-ment for the same alleged crime of which Willie Tucker, the only one yet tried, was acquitted last Saturday—robbing and burning the railroad depot at Homoville, in Sussex county.

The Petersburg jurors who returned Saturday night seem to consider the evidence very weak, in fact they say there Saturday night seem to consider the evidence very weak, in fact they say there was only one witness who amounted to anything. That one was Charlie Smith, a 'rough rider,' who has turned State's evidence. He was in the Petersburg jail for some time before being taken to Sussex Courthouse. The juvors say that Smith is a slick customer, and proved himself an adept at dodging questions. Judge R. W. Arnold and W. S. Holland are counsel for the accused negroes. Commonwealth Attorney Cocke is conducting the prosecution.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen this evening concurred in the Council resolution appointing a committee of three Councilmen and two Aldermen to take under advisement the general system of sever extension and sidewalk improvement, for which a bond issue is proposed.

The Board also concurred in the Council resolutions ordering the city enginer to make an examination and report of the condition of the vitrified brick paying on Sycamore Street, and urging a rigid enforcement of the law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors.

REGULATE LIQUOR.

A communication from the Mayor was read urging a stricter regulation, of the liquor business along the lines of a higher efforms.
